

OFFICIAL PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the Doctors in Recital event started at the Weidner Center in the Fort Howard Room in 2006, has played in many of the wonderful venues of the greater Green Bay Community, and is now playing this, their 10th year, in the beautiful Cofrin Family Hall, of the Weidner Center, on January 16, 2016 at 7:00 p.m.,

WHEREAS, physicians, family and community members started the Doctors in Recital event 10 years ago to bring together the medical community and raise funds to improve lives and help meet the needs of our community,

WHEREAS, our region has many community service and school music organizations doing important work with great need, which are worthy of our best and most creative efforts to support them in their work,

WHEREAS, Doctors in Recital serves as a model of creative and consistent community building over the last 10 years, raising funds to support organizations that serve the needs of our residents - past recipients including Ben's Wish, the East High Institute for the Performing Arts, Marion House, AFCS's Camp K.A.R.E., Freedom House, Adolescent Parenting Coalition, Oral Health Partnership, Howe Neighborhood Resource Center, Center for Childhood Safety and Golden House.

WHEREAS, we have a heritage of citizen music-making, and Doctors in Recital supports school music to continue this heritage, and provides an opportunity for physicians, healthcare professionals, and student musicians to perform together, modeling the joy of lifelong musical pursuits,

WHEREAS, Doctors in Recital, with the help of their sponsoring organization, the Brown County Medical Society, is committed to continuing their efforts to unite healthcare providers from all systems to 'make a difference by making music' for the benefit of our community both now and on into the future,

NOW, THEREFORE, we, Green Bay Mayor, James J. Schmitt and Brown County Executive, Troy J. Streckenbach, hereby proclaim January 16, 2016 as:
